SUBMISSIONS WANTED

We Need Your Stories

The Bottom Monologues will be a play based on your stories as gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer men. We're currently collecting submissions from men from across the world. Anybody who has anything to say about bottoms, including tops, bottoms, versatiles, and those who don't identify at all. Wherever you are. Whoever you are. And whatever kind of sex you have. We want you! We need your help to make sure that no bottom gets left behind! Submit your story today!
